Competitions

Spell Bee

“Spelling is important because it aids in reading. It helps cement the connection that is shaped between sounds and letters”.

Spell Bee competition was organised for Class V. This competition was one out of the numerous enjoyable competitions that give the students a platform to learn spellings in different ways. Spell Bee competition helps students improve their spellings and increase their vocabulary. The first round was a dictation round; the second round was creating new words from a word. The third round was forming pair words and the final round was puzzle round. The competition was well received by the students and they participated with great enthusiasm and zeal.

Endless Story Competition

“Logic will get you from A to B. Imagination will take you everywhere”.

Endless story competition was organised for class IV to enrich the power of imagination. An unfinished story was given to the participants and they completed it by imagination and creativity.

We believe that it's important for students to inculcate the habits of reading and writing at an early age, which will help them to begin the process of self-awareness and imagination.

Story Telling Competition

‘A good story can imbibe the right values in the most impressionable age’

Moral story telling competition was organised to enhance the confidence and speaking skill of the students. It was organised for class II. Story Telling enhances the participants' vocabulary, inculcates good moral values, develops both knowledge and love for stories. The students narrated the story and had a chance to learn how to pair gestures and words to bring characters and their actions to life. Each participant narrated a story with a moral value. Students participated zealously and impressed the audience with their confidence.

Fancy Dress Competition

The above competition was organised for Class I & II. The theme of the competition was Cartoon characters for Class I and Water animals for class II. The participants brought cheer to the school with their shimmering attires. They showed that they did not just dress up like their favourite character but also lived its soul. It was fascinating to watch the little tots performing with such ease, creativity and sincerity on the stage.

Field Trip

“Enjoy the little things in life for one day you’ll back and realize they were big things”.

We organised a visit to a red brick factory and hollow block brick factor on 21st June for classes 1 – 5. The students learnt about the production of red bricks and hollow block bricks. The educational trip to these factories were knowledgeable. The students had a funfilled journey and an educative day.

Turn Coat Competition

Turn coat is a form of debate where the speaker literally debates against himself/herself. Turn Coat competition was organised for classes VIII, IX. It was indeed an enriching experience to discuss the pros and cons of each topic. The participants were encouraged by the audience and judges. The topic was given on the spot to the participants. The participants were given a minute to think about the topic given. The participants had a good experience. The winners were: Joshika Rose, Thamizhini, Dinesh Surya getting 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes.

Mask making

Mask making is one of the most enjoyable crafts that children can be engaged in. It was organised on 21st June for Class VI to explore and encourage creativity in students and offer them a platform to show their skill in mask making. Student came up with amazing art work. Each of the masks prepared by the students was a treat to the eyes. The teachers and the judges appreciated the participants and winners were Sanjay Seashathri, Blessy Florida, Defina & Rejo Antony Nathan.

Just A Minute Competition

JAM competition was an exciting event for the participant as well as for the audience. The objective of the competition was to encourage the students to think. Each contestant had to talk for a minute on a topic that was given on the spot. All the contestants were eloquent and imaginative in their ideas. The winners in Class VII were: Rajwant Iyer & Muthamizh Sandhiya, Fathima Faseeha.

The winners in Class VIII were: Anya Susan Motha, Angelin Rociney, Nivetha Pushpa Gayathri.
